3 PILLARS AND FOCUS AREAS

FI Institute is driven by 3 pillars of impact

THINK

Policy research, polling, thought leadership and insights.

XCHANGE

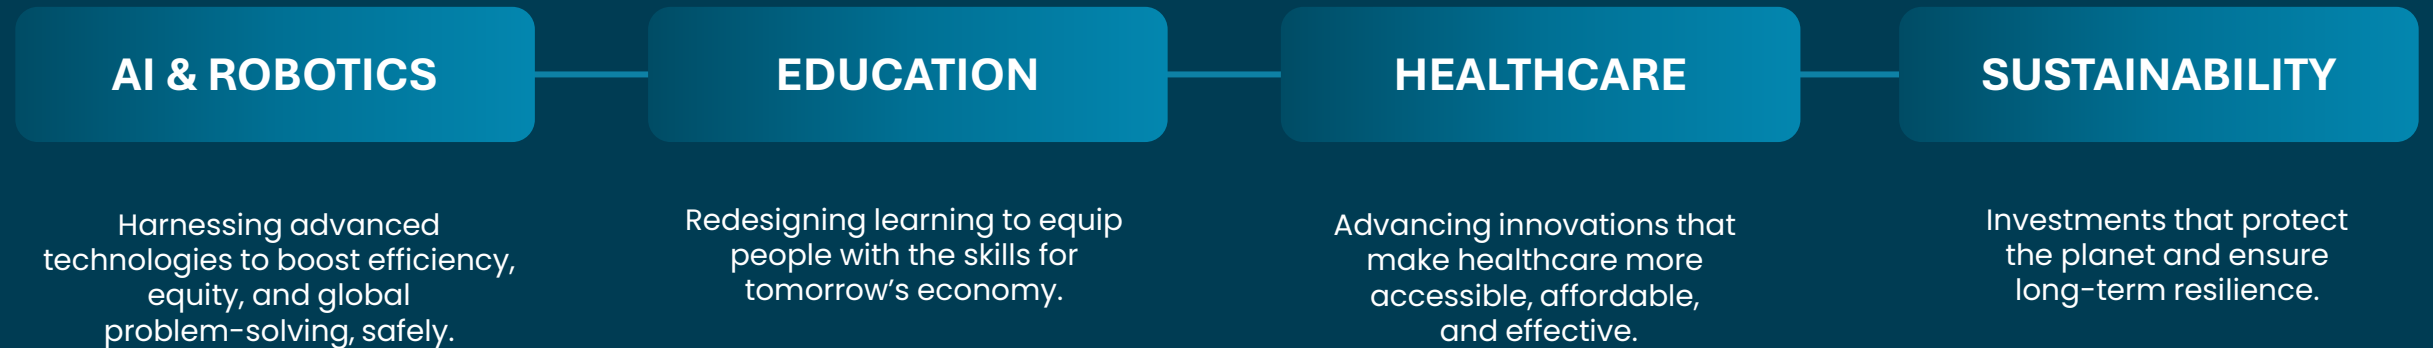

Year-round program of summits, connecting our community of changemakers with each other.

ACT

Impact investments in strategically aligned innovative companies and startups, poised to make an impact on humanity.

Deployed in the following 4 focus areas

THINK

EXECUTIVE OVERVIEW

Empowering the world's brightest minds to identify the solutions that make the greatest difference in lives globally

WHAT IS THINK'S PURPOSE?

Enabling FII Institute to serve as an intellectual center of excellence

- THINK provides intellectual leadership on the technologies, companies, and trends that will shape the world and the future of global investments.
- When THINK is successful, investors flock to FII Institute not just for the networking and events, but also to read, listen, and deeply engage with FII-I's data and insights.
- THINK feeds into FII-I's XCHANGE programming by supplying proprietary data and insights. We help build program sessions through our knowledge partnerships with the world's leading thinkers and universities.
- THINK evolves ideas into action, identifying areas of maximum return, organizing coalitions and investors, and building global consensus.

WHERE DO WE FOCUS?

The technologies and sectors that will change the world

THINK helps investors navigate the industries that can improve humanity the most – and deliver high and predictable returns to their capital

AI & Robotics

THINK examines how AI is reshaping industries, markets, and technologies.

We provide insights on where the AI and Robotics revolutions are going next and highlight the tech that will become tomorrow's headlines.

Biotech & Healthcare

THINK is shining a light on the biotechnology and neurotech innovations transforming healthcare.

We promote the benefits to investors, society, and governments from investing in longevity and preventative health measures.

Sustainability, Energy, & Climate Tech

The world faces simultaneous energy, sustainability, and supply chain crises.

THINK examines the difficulties facing these sectors and dives into the technologies and investments necessary to address their challenges.

Education

Generational changes are sweeping across the education landscape as AI transforms learning.

THINK examines how schools can best prepare their students for the future of work and transition their education models to stay relevant.

OUR ACTIVATIONS

- We generate and showcase data that helps investors and world leaders better understand the world and how to improve it

Compasses, Navigators, and Indexes

- We develop insights, model investment opportunities and returns, and provide deep analysis to investors and policymakers

Impact Reports, White Papers, & Op-eds

- We ensure FII-I events remain centers of intellectual vibrance with tomorrow's leading companies, technology, and ideas

Conclaves, Labs, & Masterclasses

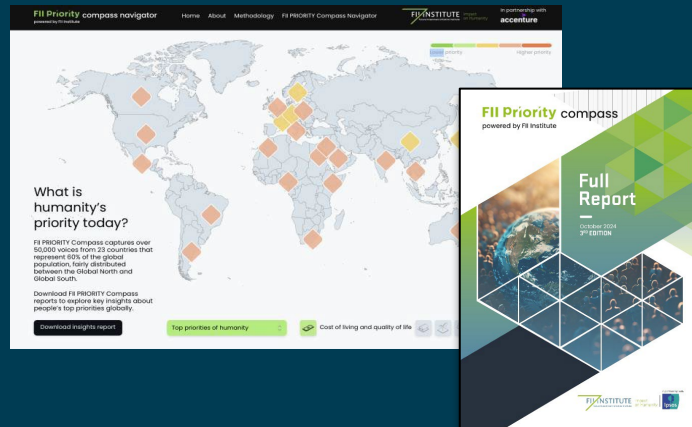

- We catalyze investment, drive global conversations, and accelerate solutions to global challenges

THINK Initiatives

FII PRIORITY COMPASS

Annual polling exploring citizen sentiment. 50,000+ respondents in 24 countries representing 62.5% of the global population.

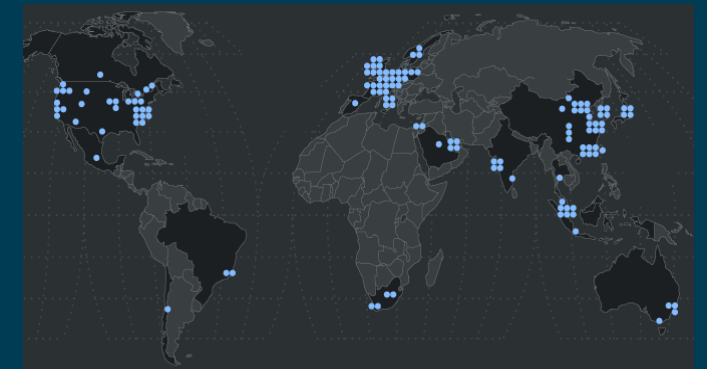

FII Capital in Motion Index

Reveals where capital is accelerating, which investment corridors are gaining structural momentum, where flows are slowing, and how the global investment landscape is being reshaped.

FII Future of Compute Index

Explores the global balance of datacenter compute resources, where data processing power will grow over time, and where the energy for the AI revolution will come from.

PUBLICATIONS

Thought Leadership

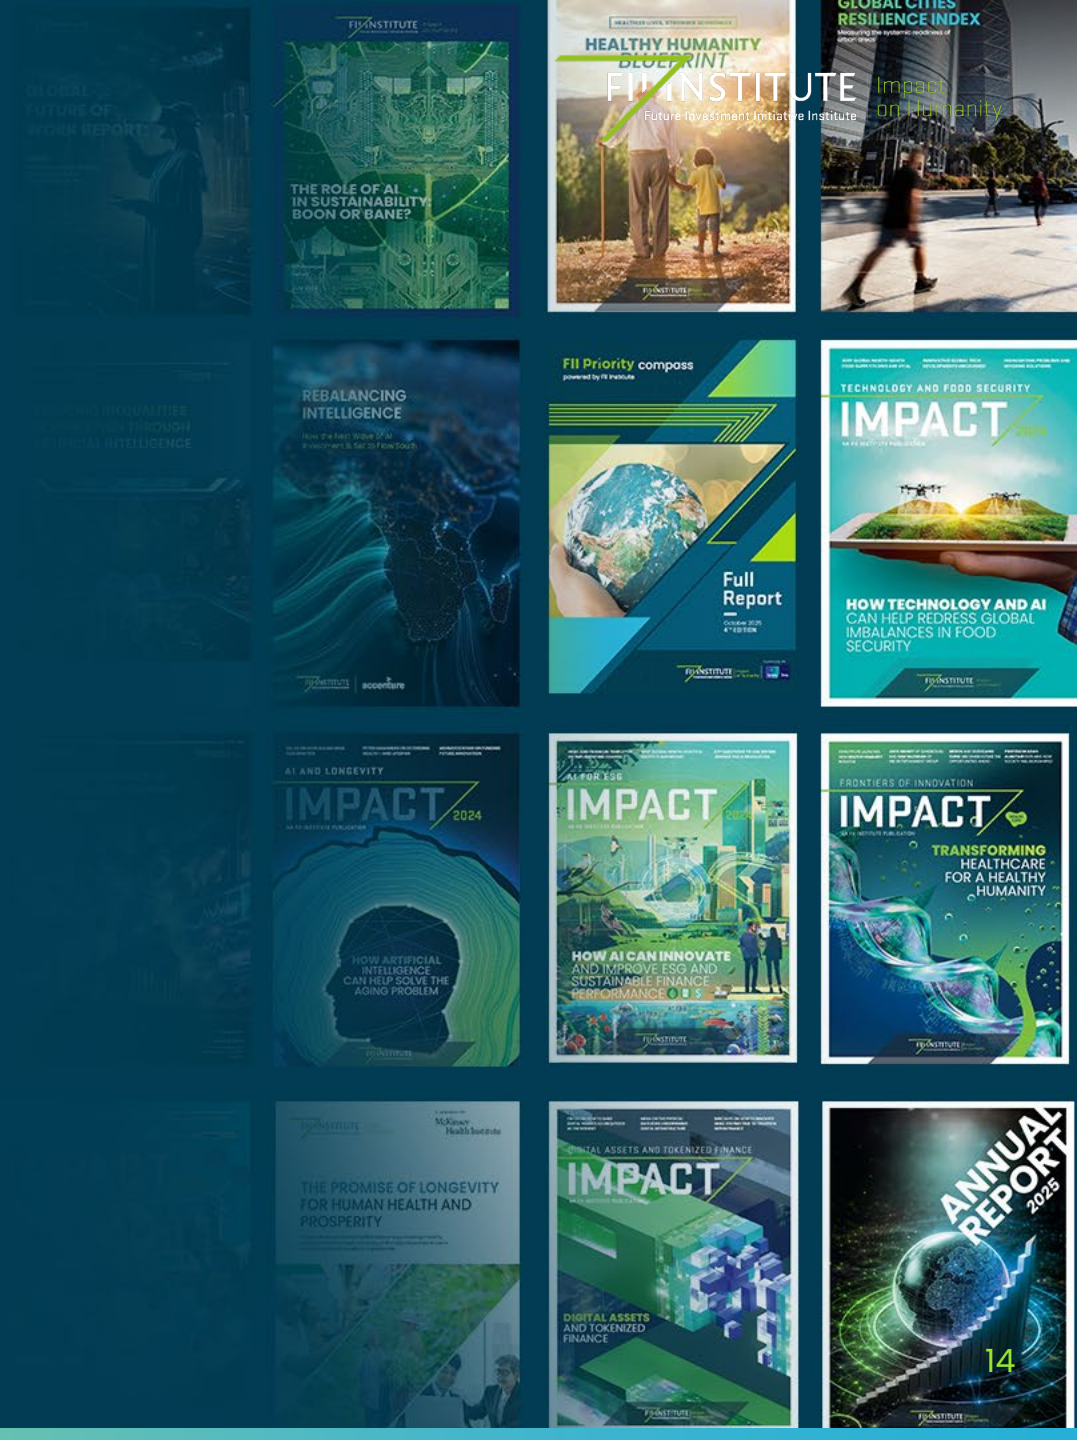

The FI Institute produces reports, whitepapers, and op-eds on issues of interest to the global investment community, leveraging the expertise and knowledge of our community of changemakers.

KNOWLEDGE PARTNERSHIPS

How we scale

THINK partners with leading consultancies and universities to develop our thought leadership products and investment studies.

In return for data and reports, our knowledge partners participate at our Priority Conferences and Summits.

- Knowledge Partners Support Our Work

Each partner delivers THINK a report, whitepaper, and/or series of op-eds covering a pre-determined topic around FII Institute's core research fields. They contribute 150 data points used in our data visualizations and suggest speakers and session ideas for our Program team.

FII typically provides knowledge partners with five complementary passes to the FII Summit in Riyadh.

- Academic Partners Build Masterclasses with THINK

FII-I has been Academic Partners with Columbia University since 2024. Columbia faculty produce four reports for FII Institute each year and lead three masterclasses per year at our summits and conferences.

XCHANGE

A decade later, the defining question of the day is not how fast the world grows, but what endures. As uncertainty cascades and resilience is tested, FII10 week will frame The Power Of Legacy as the catalyst for durable growth amid forces that compound exponentially and often unevenly.

Capital is diverging across geographies and asset classes. Artificial Intelligence is rewriting productivity, labor, and competitive advantage. Climate, demographics, and debt are reshaping the arithmetic of growth. When speed without direction is drift, legacy is the corrective—centering intention in what you build, what you change, and what you carry forward.
